TALK OF THE TOWN

White sale muslin underwear at the Vaughan Store.

Alton Smith of Plainfield was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Skating as usual at the Pearl street rink this evening at 7 o'clock. Admission, 15c; ladies, 10c.

Italian Citizen club: Mercoledì 16 febbraio terra una riunione special per affar molto importante.

Herbert Farnham, Peter Passera and Charles Passera were among the Williamstown visitors in the city yesterday.

Many articles very useful to housekeepers can be found at our penny counter at the Kenyon store. Everything must be sold at once—adv.

A regular meeting of the I. O. O. F., M. U., will be held Wednesday, Feb. 16, at 7 p. m., at the K. of C. hall. Refreshments will be served.

Miss Gertrude Slayton, Emma Slayton and Freida Hooker left to-day for Northfield, where they will attend a masquerade dance at Norwich university this evening.

John Eastman of Washington street has returned from Marshfield, where he has been employed in a lumber camp and is soon to start work for the Central Vermont railroad.

D. Janion MacNichol, who is in charge of the Boston office of the Taylor-Crittfield-Long advertising agency, arrived in the city this morning for a business visit of several days in the Barre granite belt.

Mr. MacNichol is staying at Hotel Barre.

William O. Hanson of Pearl street was called to Walcott recently by the critical condition of his mother, Mrs. C. E. Hanson, a former resident of Barre, who was taken seriously ill last Friday.

A message received from Walcott to-day stated that Mrs. Hanson had rallied from her illness and that her condition seemed to show material improvement. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hanson have been residing in the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. J. Badger, since June, 1915.

Over 100 couples attended the dancing party given under the auspices of the Young People's Dramatic society of the Church of the Good Shepherd at Howland hall last evening and danced until midnight to music by Carroll's orchestra.

The waltz, one-step and fox-trot predominating on the dance order. Preceding the dance an enjoyable concert program was given, the numbers including a selection by the orchestra, a vocal duet by Mrs. Isabella Cantlay Hall and George Mackay and vocal solos by Mrs. Hell, Miss Alice Walker and Mr. Mackay.

During the dancing several young ladies connected with the dramatic club and the church society served punch.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were the following people: F. W. Leslie of Johnson, J. C. Hartwell of Woodsville, N. H., W. J. Atkinson of Derry, N. H., Mrs. F. E. Currier and Mrs. M. D. Wells of Cabot, A. D. Marsh of Wells River, Miss Marion Bunkel of Paterson, N. J., E. J. Leighton of Malone, N. Y., A. S. Clark of Meriden, Conn., R. H. Blake of Hardwick, E. J. Savage of St. Albans, H. W. Buchanan of Orleans, Dr. H. Nelson Jackson, L. C. Lavigne and John W. Fox of Burlington, C. S. Gilman of Portland, Me., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kirchner of Cleveland, O., Martin McDowell of Concord, N. H., J. M. Kirk of Johnson and P. R. Duhamel of Winoski.

Mid-winter building operations on Washington street hill are making rapid progress. Frank E. Robinson's house at the end of French street is ready for the plasterers; H. B. Sanborn's two tenement house on Webster street is closed in and the partitions started; the building on the corner of Washington street and Huntington avenue, which Rosevelt Cameron is to occupy with his grocery store, is expected to be ready sometime in March, and the cottage house which is being erected on Nelson street by H. C. Patterson is nearly ready for occupation. It is rumored that another house is to be started on Perry street with the coming of the warm weather, but the builder is not yet ready to announce his intentions.

Having leased a suite of rooms in the Scampini building, Merlo's Academy club, occupied its new quarters for the first time last night and celebrated the occasion with a buffet luncheon, which was followed by the election of the following officers: President, P. Massi; vice president, J. Ingram; treasurer, C. Sassi. The rooms have been furnished in an up-to-date manner and as time goes on the sponsors for the young men's club hope to add to the equipment. George Troup, whose studio has been located on the second floor of the Scampini block for the past year, has moved his furnishings into a suite of rooms in the Morse building.

MONTPELIER

William Lapan Was Arrested on Complaint of His Son.

William Lapan was arrested last night about 11 o'clock by Officer John McDonald and lodged in the county jail. He was apprehended at his home on Pitkin court in the rear of Main street, complaint having been made by his son, Charles Lapan, that he had been intoxicated for the better part of a week and had tried to injure different members of the family.

Carl Sawyer of Middlesex was a visitor in the city last evening on his way to Burlington, having received word that his father, John Weir, was seriously ill at his home.

Edward Baker, assistant adjutant general, is detained at his home on Elm street with an attack of the grip. His condition is not serious.

Miss Marion A. Clark of Manchester, N. H., arrived in the city last evening for a few weeks' visit with relatives on School street.

John Muzzy and Charles Corry left this morning for Burlington for a brief visit with friends and to witness the basketball game this evening between Montpelier and Burlington high school basketball teams.

At the State street alleys last evening, the Apollo club lost three of four points to the All Stars. Bates of the winners and Kew of the Apollo club were high men with three string totals of 294.

Accompanied by Coach Frederic Edwards and a small band of rooters, the high school basketball team left this afternoon for Burlington to meet the Burlington high team this evening. Burlington lost to the locals for a forfeit, refusing to return to the floor and play an extra period, when the referee, Walker of the University of Vermont, declared it a tie game, Burlington, however, has failed to recognize the game as having been played.

C. H. Robbins of the firm of Densmore & Leclair, architects, is making a few days' visit in the city in connection with the bids on the new state building, his firm having drawn up the plans and specifications.

James B. Estee has returned from Springfield, Mass., where he attended a meeting of persons interested in promoting an eastern agricultural convention. Mr. Estee attended the meeting as president of the state fair commission. Commissioner of Agriculture E. S. Brigham was a speaker at the meeting.

William Lord is recovering from a severe cold, which has confined him to his home on Sablin street for the past ten days, but is not able to be out.
